

Standard

Window Well Overview

Conquest Steel window wells allow extra light into basement windows, protect windows during backfill and are key component of a leakproof basement. Standard and custom sizes are available.

Window Well Features

- Heavy Gauge Galvanized Steel for long life
- Pre-Drilled Holes on flanges for easy installation
- Folded hem on top edge for safety.
- Variety of sizes and styles available.

Egress

Window Well Overview

Window wells are required when a basement window is a secondary means of egress from a bedroom in order to comply with Egress Codes. Having the correctly sized window well to is important part of meeting egress requirements and providing a means of escape from basements.

Window Well Features

- Galvanized Steel Construction
- Pre-Drilled Holes For Easy Installation
- Available In a Variety of Sizes to Ensure Code Compliance
- Designed to Withstand Heavy Backfill
- Available to Ensure Safety and Code Compliance.

